On September 27th, 2017 at approximately 11:43 A.M. officers from the Winter Park Police department responded to the area of Cypress Avenue and Palmetto Avenue in reference to a crash involving 2 female pedestrians being struck by an Amtrak train. The train was traveling southbound toward Orlando. Upon the officer's arrival and initial assessment it was determined that both females were deceased. At this time, it appears that both females acted intentionally to commit suicide. Further investigation of the incident is still pending.
