DEATH INVESTIGATION

Mary Alice Neumer White Female, 70 years of age

On Monday February 6th, 2018 at approximately 3:30 a.m. officers of the Winter Park Police Department responded to assist the Winter Park Fire Department with a structure fire at 102 Bell Place. One occupant was able to make it out of the residence and the other, Ms. Neumer perished in the fire.

Investigators are continuing the investigation jointly with the Bureau of Fire and Arson. At this point in the investigation based on the information obtained it appears that the fire was accidental and was not suspicious in nature. The Medical Examiner's office preliminary investigation has concluded that the cause of death was due to smoke inhalation and thermal heat and the manner of death was an accident.

No additional information is available at this time.
