Shooting - Update

On Tuesday, March 24, 2026, at 3:47 pm, Winter Park Police officers responded to the 200 block of Overlook Road regarding a call of two people who had been shot. Two adult male victims were found with gunshot wounds, and they were transported to a local hospital for treatment by Winter Park Fire Rescue. Both victims are reported to be in stable condition. The suspect vehicle was located in the area and a vehicle pursuit ensued, ending in the 3800 block of Lake Mary Boulevard. Two suspects were taken into custody and charged with the below criminal violations. Preliminary investigation indicates the victims were shot after they confronted two suspects involved in the burglary and theft of tools from the construction site where the victims were working.

The suspects are identified as Frederick Leonzo Callaway (DOB 09/29/1988) and James Robinson (DOB 12/03/1997). Both are charged with criminal violation of:
