Update on the Roger Trindade Death Investigation

The death investigation of Roger Trindade continues to be a top priority for the Winter Park Police Department. Contact was made this week with the Medical Examiner's Office. We were advised that the final report will not be available this week.

Please continue to keep Roger's family in your thoughts and prayers as we continue to grieve as a community for the loss of a child who was taken too soon. Rest assured that our investigators have worked tirelessly to complete this investigation. Shortly after the report is received from the Medical Examiner's Office, we will be able to provide more information into what transpired during this terrible tragedy.
