2004 Resident Survey Results Summary

The City of Winter Park conducted a resident survey that was sent to 3,000 randomly selected households in May 2004, to determine issues of importance to residents, to measure satisfaction with city services, facilities and programs, to assist in the budget process and to solicit ideas for improving the City of Winter Park. The following is a summary of the 2004 Resident Survey Results.

ABOUT THE RESIDENT SURVEY

- Respondent profile:
  - 51% male; 49% female
  - 94% Caucasian; 6% other
  - 32% age >65; 31% 50-64; 38% <50
  - 76% from the east (east of Park Avenue)

MOST IMPORTANT WINTER PARK ISSUE (unprompted) Traffic is the biggest issue. Winter Park residents continue to be concerned about traffic volume and recognize the need for control.

- Traffic volume control (26%)
- Electric power/underground lines (9%)
- Development/growth management (8%)
- Park Avenue/empty stores (6%)
- Quality of life/preserving identity (5%)

TRAFFIC CALMING

- 50% traffic calming outweighs the inconveniences
- 45% say traffic calming does not outweigh the inconveniences

CITY PRIORITIES (SCALE OF 1-5) WHEN GIVEN CHOICES Of the five choices given, residents think the city’s highest priority should be keeping Park Avenue economically viable, followed by strengthening Winter Park’s neighborhoods.

- Keeping Park Avenue viable (4.75)
- Strengthening neighborhoods (4.13)
- Redeveloping Fairbanks Avenue (3.17)
- Preserving the West side (3.03)
- Affordable Housing (2.80)

ELECTRICAL POWER Electric power remains a concern. Following the Progress Energy vote, residents are focused on the undergrounding of power lines. In the meantime, they prefer more frequent tree trimming (2-3 year cycle) to control power outages and want the number and length of outages to be reduced equally.

- 49% want to reduce the number and length of power outages equally
- 85% prefer a 2-3 year tree cutting cycle
- 62% prefer no change in power rates while maintaining the long-term plan to bury lines
POLICE/FIRE SERVICES More police/fire services are important to some. Approximately one-fourth of residents want additional police, traffic and bicycle patrols, as well as more safety programs (firearms, self-defense, first aid courses).

- 33% increased police patrols
- 28% more traffic patrols
- 25% increased bike patrols
- 25% more community programs

SIZE OF HOMES Size of homes is somewhat of an issue. One-third of residents think that Winter Park’s homes are too large, while one-fifth have no opinion.

- 38% size just right
- 32% homes too large
- 9% could be larger

LAKE ACCESS Lake access is a split issue

- Four in 10 (40%) residents feel there is adequate public access to Winter Park’s lakes, but another one-third do not.

SUPPORT FOR MILLAGE INCREASE Just over half (51%) of survey respondents would support the millage increase to accomplish one or more of the following given choices:

- To upgrade streets (next 10 years)
- For Parks & Rec. facility maintenance and improvements
- For public safety enhancements
- For right-of-way tree trimming

INVESTMENT OF CRA FUNDS Invest CRA funds in capital development. Half of residents want CRA funds to go more to capital development compared with 15 percent who want more to go to social programs.

- 54% - more than half of the CRA money should be vested in capital development
- 15% - more than half should be invested in social development
- One in four (26%) – split evenly

PARKS AND RECREATION PARKS/FACILITIES VISITED City parks are well used. Residents visit many of Winter Park’s recreation facilities, with the Farmers’ Market, Cady Way Park, and Showalter Field being the most popular.
