

CITY OF WINTER PARK
CANVASSING BOARD
MARCH 14, 2006

The Canvassing Board for the City of Winter Park was called to order at 5:00 p.m. in the office of the Orange County Supervisor of Elections, 119 West Kaley Avenue, Orlando, Florida.

PRESENT: Commissioners Douglas Metcalf, Barbara DeVane and John Eckbert, City Attorney Trippe Cheek, and City Clerk Cynthia S. Bonham.

Absentee ballots were opened by the Canvassing Board and separated, keeping voter secrecy. City Clerk Bonham stated a total of 13 ballots had to be canvassed because of either not being signed, the signature did not match the signature on file at the SOE office, or had the wrong signature on the envelope. Ms. Bonham provided to the Canvassing Board a list of the previously approved criteria to be used to determine which questionable ballots would be accepted or rejected. A total of 1,173 absentee ballots were counted as accepted counting the canvassed ballots that were accepted out of the 13 to canvass.

Clerks from each precinct modem'ed in the election results from their respective precinct. The tapes from the precincts containing the results were faxed to the Elections Office for use by the Canvassing Board.

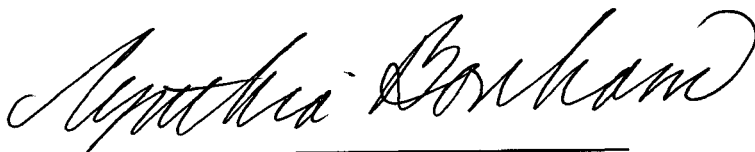

Results from the precincts were read by Ms. Bonham from the faxed copy of the tape received from each tabulator from each polling place.

Precinct 9102	Kenneth Marchman	428
	David Strong	410
Precinct 9202	Kenneth Marchman	375

CITY OF WINTER PARK
CANVASSING BOARD
MARCH 20, 2006

The Winter Park Canvassing Board reconvened at 12:15 to certify the elections results. City Clerk Bonham provided the statistics for each precinct, absentee ballots, early voting, touch screen voting and advised the board about one provisional ballot that the Elections' Office found to be acceptable and run through the tabulator at their office. The tape was provided to the City Clerk by fax showing the one provisional ballot voting for Mr. Strong.

Upon review of the information provided by the City Clerk, a motion was made by Commissioner Metcalf to accept and certify the election results as presented for the March 14, 2006, General Election, declaring David Strong as the winner, seconded by Commissioner Eckbert. Motion carried unanimously.

The final count is as follows:

Total votes, including absentees, early voting and touch screen voting:

Kenneth Marchman	2,776	45.40%
David Strong	3,338	54.60%

Tabulation of Results is attached as part of these minutes.

The Canvassing Board adjourned at 12:18 p.m.
