Guidelines for City Proclamations

Requests for City of Winter Park proclamations must be submitted via email to the Communications Department for review and preparation at least three weeks prior to date needed.

Each request must include six to eight “whereas” statements outlining the significance of the recognition. The city has the right to grammatically edit these statements, if necessary.

Contact information, including mailing address, email and phone numbers, must be provided.

Proclamations may be presented at City Commission meetings, at special events or mailed to the entity, depending on timing, schedules and availability.

The city has the right to deny any proclamation request that does not meet the following standards.
