The Alford Inn at Rollins Named One of the Top 5 Hotels in Florida by the Condé Nast Traveler Reader's Choice Awards 2019

Winter Park, Florida. October 29, 2019. The Alford Inn at Rollins in Winter Park, Florida was named one of the Top 5 Hotels in Florida by Condé Nast Traveler Reader's Choice Awards 2019.

The 112-room independently-owned boutique hotel is located in the heart of historic Winter Park, close to Orlando. Owned by Rollins College, The Alford Inn is distinguished by its philanthropic mission, directing all of its net operating income to scholarships. Additionally, it is the only hotel in the United States that serves as a formal extension of an art museum, exhibiting a rotating collection of 350-plus artworks from the College's Cornell Fine Arts Museum and its Alford Collection of Contemporary Art.

"We are privileged to be recognized once again by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler," said Jesse Martinez, General Manager of The Alford Inn at Rollins. "The hotel is a unique property with an artistic and philanthropic focus at its core. These awards are a reflection of our remarkable team, who deliver outstanding service every single day."

Over 600,000 readers submitted ratings, comments and recent travel experiences for more than 10,000 hotels, resorts and destinations in the 32nd Annual Reader's Choice Awards according to Condé Nast Traveler, celebrating the best places on the planet.
