ORLANDO PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA RINGS IN THE HOLIDAY SEASON IN WINTER PARK'S CENTRAL PARK

(November 17, Winter Park, FL) – The City of Winter Park and the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra invite you to celebrate the spirit of the holiday season at their socially-distanced Holiday Pops concert Sunday, December 6, at 5 p.m., in Central Park. This free, public event is made possible by the Charlotte Julie Hollander Trust. Bring a blanket and pack a picnic for a musical program that has become a family tradition in central Florida.

Enjoy beautiful Central Park as the Orlando Philharmonic performs a seasonal program featuring familiar favorites to delight your family. Strict safety protocols will be in place throughout this event as recommended by the CDC and our local authorities, to ensure the safety of the patrons, staff, and musicians in attendance. Temperature checks will be required for all before being allowed admittance into the venue, and face coverings must be worn at all times. Seating will also be appropriately socially distanced. Parking is free for this event. Tents and pets are not permitted.

Reserve your 10x10 socially distance pod for up to 6 people on the Parks and Recreation Eventbrite page. For more information about this, please call 407.599.3463.

Celebrating its 28th Season, the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra is led by Music Director Eric Jacobsen and is comprised of creative musicians and artists from around the world. The Philharmonic annually presents the 10-concert FAIRWINDS Classics Series and Pops Series, as well as its Focus Series and Symphony Storytime Series at The Plaza Live, a historic Central Florida venue. The Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra's mission is to enrich and inspire the diverse communities of Central Florida through the transformative power of live music, and it presents more than 170 live concerts and impacts more than 70,000 children, youth, and families annually through its Young People's Concerts, Symphony Storytime Series, Notes in Your Neighborhood program, and free outdoor community concerts. A resident company of the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, the Philharmonic will perform in Steinmetz Hall when it opens. Learn more at OrlandoPhil.org.
