TUESDAYS AND THURSDAYS, 2:30 P.M.

Tour of Louis Comfort Tiffany’s Laurelton Hall. Learn more about Tiffany’s grand Long Island estate in this guided tour of surviving art and architectural elements on view at the Morse. Space limited. No advance reservations. Free with admission.

WEDNESDAYS, 11 A.M.

Gallery Talk on Revival and Reform—Eclecticism in the 19th-Century Environment. Learn more about the rich diversity of styles, especially in leaded-glass windows, that made up the visual environment of the late 19th century. Space limited. No advance reservations. Free with admission.

FRIDAYS, 11 A.M.

Gallery Talk on Earth into Art—The Flowering of American Art Pottery. Explore the origin, innovation, and beauty of American art pottery, which was internationally acclaimed in the late 19th century. This major exhibition (October 16, 2018–September 27, 2020), featuring almost 100 objects from the Morse collection, provides a window onto a distinctly American artistic achievement, including its roots in Ohio and the key contributions of women. Space limited. No advance reservations. Free with admission.

The Morse Museum is home to the world’s most comprehensive collection of works by Louis Comfort Tiffany. It is located at 445 N. Park Avenue in downtown Winter Park. Through April, regular Museum hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday and Saturday; 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday; and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Fridays. Regular admission is $6 for adults, $5 for seniors, $1 for students, and free for children younger than 12. For more information, call (407) 645-5311, or visit morsemuseum.org.
