WINTER PARK, FL—The Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art continues its free summer family programs that explore the depth and breadth of the collection. This year’s programs focus on beautiful gardens and travel advances during the reign of Queen Victoria (r. 1837–1901).

The Museum’s summer offerings for families—designed for children in kindergarten through fifth grade and their parents or guardians—include a gallery tour with a take-home art activity on Tuesdays and a film, tour, and onsite art activity on Fridays. Space in these free family programs is limited, and reservations are required. Details are as follows:

- Tuesday Family Tours—Take a 40-minute gallery tour on four Tuesdays: June 18, 25, and July 9, 16. Includes a take-home art activity. The tour begins at 10 a.m.
- Friday Family Films—Enjoy a short film, gallery tour, and onsite art activity in this 90-minute program on four Fridays: June 21, 28, and July 12, 19. The program begins at 10 a.m.

All children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. A $5 refundable deposit per person is required when securing a reservation for either program. Call (407) 645-5311, extension 136, to make a reservation or request more information.

Summer hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. Regular admission is $6 for adults, $5 for seniors, $1 for students, and children younger than 12 receive free admission and are always welcome with their parents or guardians. More information may be found on the Museum's website, morsemuseum.org.
