"Solana Fine Art is more than just a gallery; it's a space where art and beauty intersect with everyday life. My goal is to create a welcoming environment where people can connect with the emotional depth of the pieces and take a part of that beauty into their own lives. It's an honor to showcase the incredible talent of Southeastern artists and share their work with the Winter Park community and beyond," said Bob Jimenez, Owner and Gallerist of Solana Fine Art.

About Solana Fine Art:

Solana Fine Art embodies elegance, refinement, and inclusion, offering a thoughtfully curated selection of contemporary art that reflects its mission to "connect people to beauty." The gallery serves as a cultural hub in Winter Park, where art lovers, collectors, and the public can engage with the beauty and emotional resonance of fine art. By showcasing some of the region's finest artists, Solana provides a space for cultural connection, bringing beauty into homes, workplaces, and everyday life.

About Bob Jimenez:

Owner and gallerist Bob Jimenez is a passionate art collector with more than 25 years of experience in the art world. His background in corporate leadership and his studies at Sotheby's Institute of Art have shaped his refined curatorial vision for Solana Fine Art. Deeply committed to supporting the arts and cultural community, Bob serves on multiple arts and civil rights boards and is dedicated to enriching the cultural landscape of Central Florida.
