

Solana Fine Art Welcomes Artist Anabel Rub Peicher to Its Roster

The Winter Park gallery celebrates a bold new addition whose global perspective and sculptural works embody harmony, compassion, and emotional depth.

Winter Park, FL – Tuesday, April 15, 2025 – Solana Fine Art is proud to announce the addition of celebrated sculptor and multidisciplinary artist Anabel Rub Peicher to its growing roster of artists. Known for her emotionally resonant sculptures and textured, organic forms, Rub Peicher brings a dynamic presence to the gallery's curatorial vision.

Born and raised in Lima, Perú and currently based in South Florida, Rub Peicher holds a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Miami. Her work has been exhibited extensively across the United States, Peru, Spain, and beyond, with accolades including multiple awards for her ceramic sculptures and several solo exhibitions.

"Anabel's work speaks in a language of compassion and connection," said Bob Jimenez, founder and gallerist of Solana Fine Art. "Her sculptural pieces feel both ancient and strikingly modern—earthbound yet transcendent. She brings a distinctive voice to our gallery, one that is rooted in cultural heritage but deeply universal in meaning."

A longtime advocate for the transformative power of art, Rub Peicher is also active in community service and arts education. She regularly volunteers with Gilda's Club, creating workshops for children, and is a member of several arts organizations including the Ceramic League Miami, Broward Art Guild, and Gold Coast Watercolor Society.

"Through my art and actions, I strive to spread compassion, happiness, kindness, and peace. I challenge myself to create unique works that motivate individuals to empower themselves with purpose, finding their own voices and together striving for a gentler and peaceful world," said Rub Peicher.

Her debut exhibition at Solana Fine Art is now on view, featuring a selection of her sculptures that explore balance, harmony, and the beauty of imperfection.
