Pattern & Pulse
January 2 – 31, 2026
Opening Reception: January 9, 5:30 – 7:30 PM
Featuring: Pat Zalisko & Karlene McConnell
Introducing Guest Artist: Maria Kruschewsky

Winter Park, FL — Solana Fine Art is pleased to present Pattern & Pulse, a dynamic exhibition exploring rhythm, repetition, and the intuitive mark through the work of three contemporary artists. On view January 2–31, the exhibition unites the bold architectural abstractions of Pat Zalisko, the flowing, nature-inspired paintings of Karlene McConnell, and the vibrant, layered compositions of guest artist Maria Kruschewsky.

In Pattern & Pulse, structure meets spontaneity, and pattern becomes a form of emotional language. Together, these artists create an exhibition that moves—quietly, powerfully, and with intention.

“This exhibition is about the energy that lives inside the work—whether it’s the precision of a geometric form or the softness of a flowing brushstroke,” says Bob Jimenez, founder and gallerist at Solana Fine Art. “Pat, Karlene, and Maria each bring their own rhythm to the canvas, and the way their pieces speak to one another creates a truly compelling conversation.”

Pat Zalisko brings a striking sense of design and emotional depth to her abstractions. Geometric forms, layered collage, and expressive marks create visual blueprints of movement, memory, and tension. Each composition pulses with a deliberate, architectural rhythm.

Karlene McConnell counterbalances with organic, atmospheric paintings inspired by nature and the body in motion. Her meditative brushwork and gentle palettes invite viewers to pause, breathe, and feel the subtle movement embedded within her layered surfaces.

Guest artist Maria Kruschewsky bridges both worlds, fusing bold chromatic shifts with delicate, rhythmic mark-making. Built through layers of color, gesture, and repetition, her paintings reveal themselves slowly—energized yet contemplative.

Together, these artists offer three distinct visions of energy, movement, and resonance—each exploring what happens when intuition meets repetition and when pattern transforms into emotion.
