PRESS RELEASE

Ring in the holiday season with the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra

WINTER PARK, FL, an internationally recognized, award winning city with multiple accredited agencies (November 15, 2019) The City of Winter Park and the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra invite you to celebrate the spirit of the holiday season at their annual Holiday Pops concert Sunday, December 8, at 5 p.m., in Central Park. This free, public concert is made possible by the Charlotte Julia Hollander Trust. Bring a blanket and pack a picnic for a musical program that has become a family tradition in central Florida.

Enjoy beautiful Central Park as the Orlando Philharmonic performs a seasonal program featuring familiar favorites to delight your family. Highlights will include instrumental assortments such as "White Christmas" and "Sleigh Ride," selections from Tchaikovsky's classic "The Nutcracker," as well as a joyful Christmas sing-a-long.

Celebrating its 27th Season, the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra led by Music Director Eric Jacobsen is comprised of creative musicians and artists from around the world. The Philharmonic annually presents the FAIRWINDS Classics Series and Pops Series at Bob Carr Theater and its Focus Series at The Plaza Live, a historic Central Florida venue. The Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra's mission is to enrich and inspire the diverse communities of Central Florida through the transformative power of live music, and it presents more than 170 live concerts and impacts more than 70,000 children, youth and families annually through its Young People's Concerts, Symphony Storytime Series, Notes in Your Neighborhood program, and free outdoor community concerts. A resident company of the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, the Philharmonic will perform in Steinmetz Hall when it opens in 2020. Learn more at OrlandoPhil.org.
