PRESS RELEASE

Rediscover art, culture and heritage in Winter Park during “Weekend of the Arts” THIS WEEKEND

WINTER PARK, FL, an internationally recognized, award winning city with multiple accredited agencies (February 13, 2020) The city is proud to host its third annual Weekend of the Arts celebration in Winter Park from Friday, February 14, through Monday, February 17. This special weekend was specifically developed to shine a spotlight on all of the extraordinary live music, theaters, art exhibitions, children’s arts and crafts, and other cultural treasures in Winter Park. The inspiring events, presented by the city in partnership with the 18 nonprofit arts and cultural groups, will offer the community the chance to sample Winter Park’s diverse array of cultural experiences.

Every day is extraordinary in Winter Park and the city invites you to be inspired by enjoying something new and exciting the coming year. Weekend of the Arts is full of arts and culture opportunities including live performances, exhibitions, tours, open houses, and educational seminars. As you plan your weekend date nights with your loved one(s), consider exploring the arts and culture experiences in the city.

“Our Weekend of the Arts allows newcomers and multi-generations of families time to rediscover Winter Park and all of the art and cultural amenities the city has to offer,” said Mayor Steve Leary.
