Mayor Phil Anderson to offer a second opportunity to attend the Annual State of the City Address presentation

WINTER PARK, FL, an internationally recognized, award-winning city with multiple accredited agencies (February 25, 2022) On Sunday, February 27, from 2 to 3 p.m., Winter Park Mayor Phil Anderson will present his Annual State of the City Address, highlight the city's recent accomplishments, and share his thoughts on the upcoming year. This event will be held in the new Winter Park Events Center Grand Ballroom located at 1050 W. Morse Blvd. Immediately following the State of the City Address, Vice Mayor Carolyn Cooper and City Commissioners Marty Sullivan, Sheila DeCiccio and Todd Weaver will share their perspectives on a variety of city topics.

The city is hosting this free and open to the public event to provide additional members of the community with the opportunity to attend the Address and gather with their elected officials to honor the city's accomplishments. Mayor Anderson first presented the Address February 25 at the State of the City Luncheon hosted by the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce.
