PRESS RELEASE

Easter in the Parks

WINTER PARK, FL, an internationally recognized, award winning city with multiple accredited agencies (March 29, 2023) The Easter bunny will once again hop through our city parks to celebrate the season with you and your family. Gather your “peeps,” beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 8, as the bunny will hop to three different city parks.

Families can hang out with the Easter Bunny and enjoy free face painting or balloon artists, bounce houses, music and Easter treats from 10 a.m. to noon in these city parks:

Ward Park Playground
250 Perth Lane, 32792

Phelps Park Playground
1206 N. Phelps Ave., 32789

Martin Luther King, Jr. Park Community Playground
255 S. Denning Drive, 32789

Winter Park residents will also be able to celebrate Easter at the Winter Park Farmers’ Market located in Central Park West Meadow from 10 a.m. to noon. Hop by, paint a ceramic bunny-shaped piggy bank, and enjoy our weekly market vendors.

For any egg-celent questions, please contact kbaker@cityofwinterpark.org or 407-599-3342.

The city wishes you, your family and friends, a hoppy Easter season.
