

401 South Park Avenue • Winter Park, Florida 32789

Communications

Media Inquiries: Craig O'Neil
407-599-3506 • 321-303-2653 cell

PRESS RELEASE

Juneteenth celebrations in Winter Park

WINTER PARK, FL, an internationally recognized, award winning city with multiple accredited agencies (June 7, 2023) In honor of Juneteenth, the federal holiday which commemorates the emancipation of enslaved African Americans, the public is invited to attend several events at various city facilities. Please join us for the following community events:

Thursday, June 15 | Winter Park Events Center @ 1050 W. Morse Blvd.

- 5th Annual Hannibal Square Community Land Trust Juneteenth Roundtable Discussion
Race, Housing and Health
5:30 to 8:30 p.m.
to register, access hannibalsquareclt.org/juneteenth-2023

Saturday, June 17 | Winter Park Community Center & Shady Park @ 721 W. New England Ave.

- 8th Annual Juneteenth Celebration in Historic Hannibal Square
Remembering Rosewood
10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
curated by Barbara Chandler in partnership with Hannibal Square Heritage Center for more information, access hannibalsquareheritagecenter.org/juneteenth.html
- Educational Seminars
2:30 to 4:30 p.m.
presented by the Equity Council Corp. in partnership with the Parks & Recreation Department
- A Night Under the Stars: Jazz & Jubilee
5 to 10 p.m.
presented by the Equity Council Corp. in partnership with the Parks & Recreation Department
for more information, access equitycouncilcorp.org

Tuesday, June 20 | Winter Park Library @ 1052 W. Morse Blvd.

- From Gullah to Juneteenth (three informative sessions) 2 p.m., 4 p.m. and 6 p.m.
limited seating; to reserve, access winterparklibrary.org/events/upcoming

City Hall will be closed on Monday, June 19, in observance of the federal holiday. For more information regarding Juneteenth and other city events, please access cityofwinterpark.org/events. ###

cityofwinterpark.org • Facebook • Twitter • Instagram • Vimeo • YouTube • @YourRequest

Certified WCAG 2.1 Level AA compliant and usable with JAWS and NVDA by SWH