PRESS RELEASE

Winter Park welcomes fall season with community events

WINTER PARK, FL, an internationally recognized, award-winning city with multiple accredited agencies (October 3, 2023) The City of Winter Park eagerly welcomes the fall season by inviting residents and guests to enjoy or participate in these upcoming community events.

50th Annual Winter Park Autumn Art Festival

October 7 - 8, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Park Avenue and Central Park

Be inspired this fall at the only juried, fine art festival exclusively featuring Florida artists, hosted by the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce and presented by Keller Williams Realty. Access road closure notice at cityofwinterpark.org.

Trick or Treat Park Avenue

Saturday, October 28, 10 a.m. to noon in downtown Winter Park

This Halloween tradition continues inviting all the little munchkins to visit shops and restaurants along Park Avenue to see what treats will be awaiting them.

Big Band Boo on the Avenue

Saturday, October 28, 7 to 8 p.m. in Central Park

Fall into the Halloween spirit and join us for the second of a three-concert series sponsored by the Rotary Club of Winter Park. The Orlando Big Band is the only authentic 1940s Big Band in Florida and they have a truly Spooktacular evening planned for all.

Halloween Trunk Fest

Tuesday, October 31, 6 to 8 p.m.

Winter Park Community Center at 721 W. New England Ave.

The city's Parks & Recreation Department will present their annual Halloween event with local businesses and organizations decorating their vehicles to distribute treats to children of all ages.

Pumpkin' Dumpin' Dropoff

Saturday, November 4, 10 a.m. to noon, Rollins Softball Field at 452 Harper Street

The city's Sustainability Division will present their first post-Halloween dropoff for residents to compost their pumpkins and jack-o-lanterns, an initiative to divert waste from the landfill.
