PRESS RELEASE

Winter Park Mayor Sheila DeCiccio to present her State of the City Address

WINTER PARK, FL (January 10, 2025) Mayor Sheila DeCiccio will present her State of the City Address, Friday, January 31, at the Winter Park Events Center located at 1050 W. Morse Blvd. The community is invited to arrive at 8:30 a.m., to mingle with fellow neighbors and visit with city departments to learn more about the high-quality services the city provides.

The official program begins at 9 a.m., with the Mayor's Address that will highlight upcoming projects and recent accomplishments. She will also recognize the city's Employees of the Year and present the 2025 Mayor's Founders' Award.

Immediately following the Address, Vice Mayor Todd Weaver and City Commissioners Marty Sullivan, Kris Cruzada and Craig Russell will share their perspectives on a variety of city topics. This FREE event has been specifically designed and scheduled for Winter Park residents and the community it serves.

A courtesy RSVP to MayorsMessage@cityofwinterpark.org by 5 p.m., Friday, January 17, is requested to assist in planning purposes only. The event will offer open seating, light breakfast bites and beverages for all to enjoy.

If you are unable to attend, a video of the address will be posted on the city's YouTube channel accessed at bit.ly/WinterParkSOTC after the event.
