

proclamation

Lurline Fletcher Day | April 2, 2018

WHEREAS, Lurline Fletcher was born October 4, 1943, in Foxworth Columbia, Mississippi, to Hattie and Hurly Daniels; and

WHEREAS, she attended Hannibal Square Elementary School in Winter Park, Fla; and

WHEREAS, Fletcher attended night classes at Jones High School and earned her diploma, then went on to Jones College to become a nurse's assistant; and

WHEREAS, she was a community activist who attended City Commission and Planning & Zoning Board meetings, and did not shy away from expressing herself on behalf of her community; and

WHEREAS, Fletcher served on multiple boards such as: Community Redevelopment Agency Advisory Board; Human Relation Council; Welbourne Avenue Nursery & Kindergarten, Inc. Board; Bridge Builders; Westside Afro-American Homeowners & Homesteaders Association Inc.; Neighborhood Watch; and City of Winter Park Civilian Police Academy; and

WHEREAS, she was recognized by the Ideal Woman's Club "I Know Something Good About You" award for community service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steve Leary, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Winter Park, in the state of Florida, do hereby proclaim Monday, April 2, 2018, to be Lurline Fletcher Day in the City of Winter Park, Florida and encourage all citizens to celebrate her contributions to our community and comfort her family in their time of sorrow.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Winter Park, Florida, to be affixed this 29th day of March 2018.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Steve Leary".

Steve Leary
Mayor