

CITY OF WINTER PARK

proclamation

The Mayflower at Winter Park Day | October 31, 2023

WHEREAS, in 1989, The Mayflower at Winter Park was founded by members of the First Congregational Church of Winter Park as a retirement community to serve area seniors; and

WHEREAS, since then, it has been providing residents with a full range of independent living options and long-term care services that consistently meet the highest standards of excellence; and

WHEREAS, Allerton Cove, The Mayflower's skilled nursing area, is rated 5 stars by Medicare – based on health inspections, staffing and quality measures – and was named by U.S. News & World Report as one of the nation's Best Nursing Homes for 2022-2023; and

WHEREAS, also honored in 2023 by the state of Florida with the prestigious Governor's Gold Seal award, Allerton Cove was recognized as a nursing facility that demonstrated excellence in long-term care over a sustained period, promoted the stability of the industry, and facilitates the physical, social and emotional well-being of residents; and

WHEREAS, The Mayflower is one of only 13 out of the 691 nursing facilities in Florida that have earned the Gold Seal, putting it in the top 2% of all such facilities in the state; and

WHEREAS, the retirement community recently expanded its campus to add a new, 84,842 sq. ft., state-of-the-art Healthcare Center that houses skilled nursing, rehabilitation and memory support – reflecting its commitment to continuous improvement; and

WHEREAS, a significant community champion, reliable business partner and economic engine for Winter Park, The Mayflower continues to play a pivotal role in the city by providing a unique space for seniors; and

WHEREAS, the City of Winter Park congratulates The Mayflower at Winter Park on its accomplishments and recognizes its role in delivering high-quality services and care to seniors in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Phillip M. Anderson, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Winter Park in the state of Florida, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 31, 2023, as “The Mayflower at Winter Park Day” in Winter Park, Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Winter Park, Florida, to be affixed this 31st day of October 2023.

Phillip M. Anderson
Mayor
