BE INSPIRED IN WINTER PARK, THE CITY OF ARTS & CULTURE

WINTER PARK, Fla., an internationally recognized ICMA Excellence Award winner with accredited fire-rescue, police and parks & recreation agencies (October 5, 2017) – The City of Winter Park has been committed to arts and culture since its establishment in 1882. This commitment continues today with the official formation of a hyperlocal initiative to elevate the awareness of all cultural opportunities within the city limits.

Launched in June, the initiative includes an upcoming year of promotions and a special weekend devoted entirely to arts and culture in Winter Park. In addition, the city has developed an exclusive webpage cityofwinterpark.org/arts-culture that features a comprehensive directory and extensive event calendar for all non-profit arts and cultural organizations within the city limits.

Rediscover arts and culture in Winter Park at the city's first "Weekend of the Arts" Friday, February 16, thru Monday, February 19. Be inspired with extraordinary performances, unique exhibits, and exciting events at over 20 arts organizations throughout the city. Stay tuned for complete details by visiting Arts & Culture button on the city's official website.

Whether you are making plans for an afternoon, long weekend or lifetime, every day in Winter Park is a special experience. Winter Park invites you to be inspired! #wpinspires

Arts & Culture banners are currently displayed throughout Winter Park

The mission of the Arts & Culture Subcommittee is to enhance and improve awareness and visibility of the non-profit arts and culture organizations which offer programming to the public within the City of Winter Park limits.
