

LECTURES
Winter Park Institute at the Institute presents lecture by thought leaders in an art season. September 10: Jon Meacham, executive president of book publishing, Publishers Prize Lion: Andrew Jackson in the Talk on The Art of Leadership Presidency, will take place in Chapel. (See the special issue for information on the Meacham will range from .
2145 rollins.edu/wpitickets

MARKETS
Maitland Farmers’ Market — held each Sunday — features fresh produce and new plants, all organic live music by Performing Musician on the Lily, boasts a playground and picnic in the Maitland, it’s maitland.ca.ri

Winter Park Farmers’ Market and arguably most popular event Saturday from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m., also houses the market. The open-air market sells plants, honey, cheese, meat, specialty items for sale. A of it with a stroll along England Avenue, Winter Park.

MUSIC
Bach Festival Society of Orphium and intimate concert series summarizes July 6 in the music with vocalist Michelle LeUdahl who tours with the Orlan Toxic Audio. Tickets for $15; tea and scones are in land Avenue. On July 16, for a free “open sing” of 45 p.m. in Tiedke Cor lege campus, 1000 Holz Avenue, a block away from the Sun ilie 2182, bachfestivalflorida.o

Blue Bambu Center venue is part of a performance and part of art gallery. It opens evenings with an emphasis on music — although theater presentations are also musical events include: future. July 1 at 8 p.m. ($15)

ARTS ORGANIZATIONS JOIN FORCES ONLINE

In a city bursting at the seams with arts and culture, who can keep up with it all? Making matters more difficult, there hasn’t been a single source of information about who’s doing what.

Enter the Arts & Culture Subcommittee, which was formed as part of the city’s Public Art Advisory Board in an effort to enhance awareness and visibility of the city’s numerous nonprofit arts and cultural organizations.

The initial result of the subcommittee’s work is a hyper-local city website: cityofwinterpark.org/arts-culture, where you’ll find:

• A comprehensive directory of all nonprofit arts and cultural organizations located within Winter Park’s city limits, including contact information and links to individual websites.

• An extensive and easy-to-navigate monthly events calendar featuring all scheduled arts and cultural experiences being offered by those organizations.

• Information about upcoming community-wide arts and cultural events, such as the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival, among others.

Organizations participating in Winter Park’s first-ever combined arts and cultural calendar include: The Albin Polasek Museum and Sculpture Garden (and the adjacent Capen-Showalter House); the Annie Russell Theatre at Rollins College; Art in Chambers at City Hall; Art on the Green in Central Park; the Autumn Art Festival in Central Park; the Bach Festival Society of Winter; Blue Bambu Center for the Arts; the Casa Feliz Historic Home; the Cornell Fine Arts Museum at Rollins College; the Crealde School of Art; the Fred Stone Theatre at Rollins College; the Galloway Room at the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce Welcome Center; Gladening Light; the Hannibal Square Heritage Center; Maud Botanical Garden; the Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art; the Winter Park History Museum; the Winter Park Institute at Rollins College; the Winter Park Playhouse; and the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival.

There are also links to the Winter Park Public Library’s Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival Collection — all the Best of Show winners from years past — and Paint Out, a plein air painting event sponsored by the Polasek. You can also follow local arts and cultural events via Twitter, at #wpinspires.