SO, WHAT'S HAPPENING? CITY OFFERS A SINGLE-SOURCE SOLUTION.

In a city bustling with arts and culture, who can keep up with it all? Making matters more difficult, there hasn't been a single source of information about what's going on.

Enter the Arts & Culture Subcommittee, which was formed as part of the City of Winter Park's Public Art Advisory Board in an effort to enhance and improve awareness and visibility of the city's numerous nonprofit arts and cultural organizations.

The initial result of the subcommittee's work is a hyper-local website: cityofwinterpark.org/arts culture, where you'll find:

■ A comprehensive directory of all nonprofit arts and cultural organizations located within Winter Park's city limits, including contact information and links to individual websites.

■ An extensive and easy-to-navigate month-by-month events calendar featuring all scheduled arts and cultural experiences being offered by those organizations.

■ Information about upcoming community-wide arts and cultural events, such as the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival, among others.

Organizations participating in Winter Park's first-ever combined arts and cultural calendar include: The Altis Polkod Museum and Sculpture Garden and the adjacent Capen Showalter House; the Annie Russell Theater at Rollins College; Art in Chambers at City Hall; Art on the Greens in Central Park; the Autumn Art Festival in Central Park; the B Plymouth Farmers' Market; the Blue Bamboo Centre for the Arts; the Casa Feliz Historic Home; the Cornell Fine Arts Museum at Rollins College; the Creedside School of Art; the Fred Stone Theater at Rollins College; the Gallows Room at the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce Welcome Center; Gladstone's Light; the Hardwicke Square Heritage Center; Mead Botanical Gardens; the Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art; the Winter Park History Museum; the Winter Park Institute at Rollins College; the Winter Park Playhouse; and the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival.

There are also links to the Winter Park Public Library's Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival Collection — all the Best of Show winners from past years — and Paint Out, a plein air painting event sponsored by the Polasek.

You can also follow local arts and cultural events via Twitter at @ParkArts.